VIOLETA BORISONIK

Violeta's compositions tease the senses through colour, texture and material, while her dynamic geometrical patterns echo the urban landscape. Violeta says that making art is like being a child again-it's all about playing and experimenting but most of all, having fun. This year she is also displaying her new line of jewelry. You can see more of Violeta's works at the Kanata Civic Art Gallery.

BEN GATIEN

Ben Gatien is one of the most tone-deaf people in the world. Coming from a musical family, he grew up somewhat frustrated. That is, until he discovered that he could paint music just as well as most musicians play. He is honoured to welcome you to his studio, where you can "hear" some of his latest masterpieces.
